

1. Technology and Industry:

TOKYO: National Science Museum , 7-20 Uenokoen, Taito-ku

<http://www.kahaku.go.jp/english/>

The study of the changing global environment and its impact on species from the Jurassic age to present.

TOKYO: Tokyo Electricity Denryoku-Kan, 1-12-10 Jinnan, Shibuya

<http://www5.mediagalaxy.co.jp/Denryokukan/>

The study of: the relationship between lifestyle and electricity, electric generation, the mechanics of electrical transmission, and the relationship between environment and electricity.

TOKYO: National Museum of Emerging Science and Innovation (Miraikan), 2-41 Oumi, Kouto-ku

http://www.miraikan.jst.go.jp/index\_e.html

Introduction to the latest technology, such as humanoid robots - workshops are available.

AICHI: Toyota Commemorative Museum of Industry and Technology, 4-1-35 Norikake-shimachi, Nishi-ku, Nagoya

<http://www.temit.org/english/index.html>

The critical importance of research in all manufacturing sectors, such as the automotive industry.

AICHI: Toyota Centre, Aichi 1 Toyota-cho, Toyota, Aichi

<http://www.toyota.co.jp/toyotakaikan>

The importance of the environment, safety, ITS, etc. via models and story panels. A Toyota factory tour is available.

KANAGAWA: Nissan Mobile Oppama Factory Kanagawa 1 Natsushima-cho, Yokosuka

<http://www.nissan.co.jp/INFO/FACTORY/OPPAMA/>

The coexistence between increased productivity and environmental protection. A product line tour is available.

HIROSHIM: Mazda Museum, Nihookimachi, Minami-ku, Hiroshima city

<http://www.mazda.com/mazdaspirit/museum/>

The history of the automobile and changing technology. A factory tour is available

TOKYO: Panasonic Centre, 2-5-18 Ariake, Kouto-ku

<http://panasonic.co.jp/center/tokyo/en/index.html>

Learn how human dreams are related to technology and the environment.

FUKUOKA: Nippon Steel Corporation, 1-1 Tobihata, Tohata-ku, Kitakyushu, Fukuoka

<http://www.yawata.nsc.co.jp>

A factory tour that focuses on how the facility was built with environmental sensitivity with the latest in production technology.

2. Environmental Protection, Natural Disasters, Public Welfare:

OSAKA: Osaka City Environmental Management Bureau, 1-1 Hokukoushiratsu, Konohana-ku

<http://www.city.osaka.jp/kankyojigyo/english/index.html>

Learn about recycling and proper waste management in a waste incineration plant.

HYOGO: Disaster Reduction and Human Renovation Institution, 1-5-2 Wakihamakaigan-Tori, Chuo-ku, Kobe

http://www.dri.ne.jp/images/english\_all.pdf

Disaster prevention through videos and models of the Kobe Earthquake.

NAGASAKI: Unzendake Disaster Memorial Museum, 1-1 Heiseimachi, Shimabara

<http://www.udmh.or.jp>

Mechanical simulation of volcanic and natural disasters.

TOKYO: Tokyo Fire Department Disaster Prevention Centre, 4-6-6 Yokokawa, Sumida-ku

<http://www.tfd.metro.tokyo.jp/eng/index.html>

A simulation of disaster prevention against earthquakes and rainstorms in daily life.

NAGASAKI: Huis Ten Bosch, 1-1 Huistenbosch-cho, Sasebo

<http://english.huistenbosch.co.jp/index.html>

A tour of the environmental facility, to view wastewater treatment.

TOKYO: Japan Centre for Climate Change Action, 1st Floor, Prime Shintanicho Building, 1-11-9 Azabudai, Minato-ku

<http://www.jccca.org/ondankan/pdf/english.pdf>

The relationship between global warming, energy consumption and conservation.

OITA: Oita Social Welfare Nursing Care training Centre, 3-4-1 Akenohigashi, Oita

<http://www.okk.or.jp>

Learn about the knowledge and skills needed for the care of the elderly and physically challenged people.

3. Japanese History:

HOKKAIDO: Historical Village of Hokkaido, 50-1 Konopporo, Atsubeku-cho, Atsubeku-ku, Sapporo

<http://www.kaitaku.or.jp/info/info.htm>

An outdoor museum that explains Hokkaido's historical buildings from the Meiji (1868 - 1912) and Taisho (1912 - 1926) era.

Learn about the pioneer history of the region.

TOKYO: Tokyo National Museum, 13-9 Ueno Koen, Taito-ku

<http://www.tnm.jp/en>

Study Japanese history from exhibits of National treasures to other outstanding works of art.

FUKUOKA: Kyushu National Museum, Dazaifu City, Fukuoka
4-7-2 Ishizaka, Dazaifu, Fukuoka

<http://www.kyuhaku.com/eng/>

The history of cultural exchange between Japan and Asia.

CHIBA: National Museum of Japanese History, Sakura City, Chiba
117 Jonai-cho, Sakura, Chiba

<http://www.rekihaku.ac.jp/english/index.html>

This museum provides a comprehensive view of the history and culture of Japan.

HIROSHIMA: Hiroshima Peace Memorial Museum, 1-2 Nakajima-cho, Naka-ku, Hiroshima

<http://www.pcf.city.hiroshima.jp/>

Learn about the importance of peace education through an examination of the facts about the atomic bomb.

KYOTO: Nishijin Textile Centre, Horikawa-Imadegawa, Minami-Iru, Kamigyo-ku, Kyoto

<http://www.nishijin.or.jp/eng/eng.htm>

Workshops on Kimono wearing, Nishijin weaving, and traditional performing arts.